RE: United States v. Travis M. Kamps
Case No. 16-CR-177

Dear Judge Griesbach,

The final pretrial conference in this matter is currently set for Wednesday, January 4, 2017, at 1:30 p.m. Due to an unexpected death in the family, counsel has been in and out of the office over the last week. Counsel expects to return to work as normal on Thursday, January 5, 2016. Keeping all of this in mind, counsel is certain that this case will resolve by way of a plea. From the initiation of charges in this case, discussions between the government and counsel involved resolving this case short of the charges on which Mr. Kamps is currently indicted. Counsel is aware there has been communication sent to her via email proposing an Information to lesser charges with a corresponding plea agreement spelling that out. However, counsel does not anticipate meeting with her client until after the scheduled final pretrial conference set for next week. For all of those reasons, counsel is requesting a short adjournment of thirty days to give counsel time to meet with her client and review the proposed plea agreement in this matter.

Counsel has communicated with Assistant United States Attorney Daniel Humble regarding this request, and he has no objection to this request. Counsel has also communicated with Mr. Kamps' supervising pretrial officer, United States Probation

Honorable William C. Griesbach

Officer Kevin Norman, and he reports that Mr. Kamps has been completely compliant with all conditions of release to date.

As always, if the court has any questions regarding this request or this case in general, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

s/ Krista Halla-Valdes
